

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this reference letter for Cheung Hoi Ki, Winona who interned with us as part of our public education team from 2 June to 25 July 2025. During her time here, she demonstrated exceptional creativity, dedication, and professionalism that far exceeded our expectations for an intern.

One of her key responsibilities was the production of puppet videos, which included script writing, prop making, filming, and video editing.

Her work in this area was consistently of high quality, showcasing her strong capabilities in video production and storytelling. She approached each task with a can-do attitude and remarkable problem-solving skills, often finding innovative solutions to challenges during production.

In addition to her video work, she also played a vital role in designing and operating a game booth for a public event. Her contributions helped ensure the booth was engaging and well-received by attendees, as well as children with SEN. Her sense of responsibility and reliability allowed me to confidently entrust her with important tasks, knowing she would be completed with care and excellence.

What truly sets her apart is her creativity. She consistently brought fresh, innovative ideas to the table and produced work that was both surprising and delightful. Her initiative and enthusiasm made her a standout member of our team, and I have no doubt she will continue to excel in any future endeavors.

I wholeheartedly recommend Cheung Hoi Ki, Winona for any opportunity she pursues. She is a STAR student whose talent, work ethic, and her positive attitude will be an asset to any organization.
